THE

LITERARY HIT OF THE SEASON!

"THE VERDENDORPS," a novel chaste in style, unobjectionable in tone and subject matter, but yet a book which various firms of book-makers refused to print, one firm going so far as to destroy electrotype plates of a portion of the work. It is a deep and scholarly book, yet lively and unpedantic in style; its characters drawn firmly yet remorselessly; its satire powerful, yet free from caricature; its denouement unique and startling, yet satisfactory to the reader. Price $1 50. May be had at book stores, or sent postpaid, by publisher,

C. M. HERTIG,
No. 156 Washington street, Chicago, Ill.

The trade will be supplied by the Western News Company, Chicago.
